

Brandon Parrish

Board Member

He leveraged that experience to launch and lead successful companies, gaining expertise in operations, investment, scaling organizations and driving growth. Today, he serves as President and COO of LandTec Services, LLC, guiding the company's strategy and execution. Brandon and his wife, Dora, are parents to three daughters and have been involved with CC4C since its inception. He enjoys traveling with his family and coaching showcase softball.

His personal motto, "lift while you rise," reflects his commitment to helping others succeed. With a passion for making a difference, he continues to inspire and uplift those around him.