

Heather Sanders
Development Coordinator

Heather's heart for service further led her into the role of Development Coordinator.

Born in Texas, Heather played tennis in college and graduated from University of North Texas with a Bachelor's in Business Management. She then moved to Australia for years of adventure before moving to Austin in 2010. She loves being involved in community and making an impact.

Heather is a mother of two beautiful children and enjoys playing tennis, traveling, and serving at Lake Hills Church.
