

Alicia Ahmann
Program Coordinator

Alicia graduated from Texas A&M with a degree in psychology and went on to earn a Master of Social Work from UT Austin. Alicia has many years of experience in the community and is excited to put her heart for service to work at CC4C. She understands the rare and undiagnosed journey and hopes to help provide the support that would have been so helpful to her own family.

Alicia has lived in the Austin area for 25 years and enjoys life with her husband and 2 sons. She enjoys hiking, being outdoors, volunteering, and checking out estate sales.
